NEW Certificate in Professional Studies in Supervision

Professionally validated short course at MA level

YMCA George Williams College is recognised as a pioneer in the use of supervision in professional practice. We believe that supervision is central to the development of good practice in youth work and related fields. The Professional Studies in Supervision short course is fully accredited and is open to any practitioner currently supervising staff, volunteers and students in youth work or any other people centred profession who holds a Level 6 qualification, which may be a Level 6 Short Course.

Join us for this exciting learning opportunity – at the College in east London!

“The style of the Certificate in Supervision course is excellent – encouraging peer discussion, debate and learning.”
