

Community Action - at the centre of Community Development

“Strength of any movement lies in small face to face group work”

(Handout adapted from - Transition Book 1 Page 32 & 33 Condensed)

Diagram shows that the individual is at the edge of real impact (starting the ripple process) in relation to impact on communities and the wider picture. Collectivism with Action at the centre has the biggest impact in relation to change in communities and on a wider scale.
