

Consider the following questions in relation to the case study and record your answers below.

1. What are the issues raised in this case study?

2. Who are the people who hold the power that are able to influence change around these issues?

3. How could you use the Community Empowerment Act to support change?

